- B. Discussion Items.
 - 1. Temporary Expanded Alcohol Service. Bridget Zoller and Desiree Monroy from the Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board presented to Council remotely, providing an overview of the expanded alcohol services for the 2026 World Cup fan zone. They took questions from Councilmembers, and after all questions were addressed, their presentation concluded.
 - 2. Second Regulatory Update on Sensitive Areas. Nicole Stickney, Associate Principal of AHBL, presented in person to the Council about the update to Duvall's Sensitive Areas Ordinance (SAO). Ms. Stickney welcomed questions from Councilmembers and ended her presentation after all questions were answered.
- C. Adjournment. With no further discussion, Mayor Pro Tempore Mercer adjourned the meeting at 18.44.

Part II – City Council Regular Meeting.

- A. Call to Order. At 19.00, Mayor Amy McHenry called the meeting to order and welcomed all attendees. The flag salute followed.
- B. Roll Call. Deputy City Clerk Kelsey MacDonald called the roll at the Mayor's request. All members were present in person.
- C. Additions and Corrections to the Agenda. Mayor McHenry inquired whether there were any changes or additions to the agenda. There were none.
- D. Adoption of the Council Agenda. Mayor McHenry then asked for a motion to approve the meeting agenda. Councilmember Supple moved to approve, and Councilmember Olen seconded his motion. All Councilmembers voted to approve the meeting's agenda.
- E. Proclamations. Mayor McHenry read the proclamations for Holocaust Remembrance Day and Universal Human Rights Month.
- F. Comments from the Audience. Mayor McHenry invited members of the public to make comments. There was one participant.
- G. Consent Agenda. Mayor Ockerlander proceeded to ask for a motion to approve the consent agenda, namely:
 - 1. Payroll and Claims Approval
 - 2. Approval of Meeting Minutes of the January 6, 2026. Council Meeting

Councilmember Olen moved to approve the consent agenda, and Councilmember Shaffer seconded. There was no opposition.

H. Scheduled Items.

- 1. Mayor's Report. Mayor McHenry provided updates on Learning Walks with the Riverview School District, chaired the Planning Commission meeting with new appointees, and attended a meeting with the Puget Sound Regional Council Growth Management Policy Board. She also touched on meeting with the Snoqualmie Foothills Community Collaborative with Ms. McNabb, and her upcoming trip to Olympia for AWC's City Action Days.
- 2. City Administrator's Report. City Administrator Cynthia McNabb provided updates on the Department of Community Development and on the Duvall Village commercial lot. Public Works Director Steve Leniszewski briefly mentioned the summer 2026 overlay plan, the need to reroof the Wastewater Treatment lab building, and a few other current Public Works projects. City Clerk John Botero then presented updates on the Human Services Grant and the two Council events in March. Ms. McNabb concluded the presentation after providing administrative reports and answering Council's questions.
- 3. Council Reports. Mayor Pro Tempore Mercer shared that he has been appointed to the PSRC's State Legislative Priorities Committee. Councilmember Shaffer said he will share more information from meetings with the Snoqualmie Watershed Forum and the Fish, Farm, Flood Committee with the Council.

I. Presentations.

- 1. Updates to the Public Comment Process. Mayor Pro Tempore Mercer presented what he learned from attending a seminar on Public Engagement at the National League of Cities in November 2025. The presentation concluded after questions were answered, comments were heard from Councilmembers, and it was announced what future steps would be taken to bring this matter back to Council for discussion.
- 2. Comprehensive Plan Zoning Changes. Ms. McNabb presented to Council how zoning changes will look within the Duvall Community and the code and policy changes anticipated to bring the City into compliance with the Comprehensive Plan. After discussion from Councilmembers, the presentation concluded.

J. Existing Business.
